** : Deathbolts have been called Thunderbolts.

Legio Honorum's nickname listed as Deathbolts in Imperial Armor, but the legions have differing details.

Legio Ignatium– alternate spelling in official materials.

Legio Metalica – alternate spelling in official materials.

Legio Victorum's forge world was listed as Triplex Phall in Imperial Armor, but previous sources list it as Galatia along with considerable detail

Ordo Reductor is an Order of the Adeptus Mechanicus which maintains siege dreadnoughts. It has been labeled as Demi-Legio, but I believe that's an error

Warped Dogs					Legion vaporized when transport ship crash during siege of Terra	Horus Heresy board game

Note that some of the Traitor Titan Legions share nicknames with the current loyalist Orders. Possible explanations for this include: legions which split during the Heresy, the new Orders are very tradition oriented and revived the names so as to be the "true" legion, several traitor legions are known to have changed their names and may have duplicated loyalist names.
